
Short CV

Dr. Alexander Schulan

married, two children

alexander@schulan.eu

Education

- 2020 – today PhD student in climate ethics (Dr. phil.)
Kiel University, department of philosophy
Topic: Climate justice and democracy
Supervisors: Christian Baatz and Jan-Christoph Heilinger
- 2018 – today Association with Munich Graduate School for Ethics in Practics (MKEP)
LMU Munich, faculty of philosophy
Research on theoretical and practical questions of climate ethics
- 2015 – 2018 M.A. in Philosophy
LMU Munich, faculty of philosophy
Thesis title: Does the precautionary principle provide ethically justified decisions on catastrophic risks?
Supervisor: Jan-Christoph Heilinger
- 2005 – 2008 PhD in Economics (Dr. rer. pol.)
Technical University Darmstadt
Thesis on empirical economics
Supervisor: Horst Entorf
- 2000 – 2004 Diplom in Economics
LMU Munich and University of Warwick
Minor: Logic and Philosophy of Science

Practical Experience

- 2020 – today Research Associate
Kiel University, department of philosophy
Working group climate ethics, sustainability and global justice
- 2016 – 2019 Postdoctoral Research Associate
Goethe University Frankfurt, chair of econometrics
Project “4D-Security” on economic aspects of public security
- 2015 – 2016 Parental leave
- 2007 – 2014 MEAG Munich Ergo Asset Management
Quantitative Research and Mandate Management